ONTOLOGIES OF PERSONHOOD: AFRICAN PERSPECTIVES

Date: 26th to 27th November 2019
Venue: Sociology Department, Conference room
Time: Day 1 - 9:00 am - 3:00 pm
Day 2 - 9:30 am - 5:30 pm

Dr. Martin Ajei
Senior Lecturer
Department of Philosophy and Classics
University of Ghana, Legon
To be Gay and African: a Contradiction in Being?

Prof. Emmanuel Kofi Ackah
Professor of Classics
Department of Philosophy and Classics
University of Ghana, Legon
The Language and Logic of Belief in ‘Ababio’
(Being reincarnated)

Dr. Marius Bartmann
Researcher
German Reference Centre for Ethics in the Life Sciences
University of Bonn
Personhood Inside Out – Private Language and Public Understanding

Dr. Caesar Akinsanya Atuire
Senior Lecturer
Department of Philosophy and Classics
University of Ghana, Legon
Philosophical Underpinnings of African Conflict Resolution: the Bula Legal System

Dr. Rose Mary Amenga-Etego
Senior Lecturer
Department of Religions
University of Ghana, Legon
Gendering the Indigenous Concept of Personhood through Symbols: a Nankani Perspective

Dr. Aurélie Halsband,
Researcher
German Reference Centre for Ethics in the Life Sciences
University of Bonn
Persons and Reproductive Rights

Prof. Dieter Sturma
Director
German Reference Centre for Ethics in the Life Sciences and Professor of Philosophy
University of Bonn
Person and Conflict

Prof. Nancy O. Myles
Assistant Lecturer
Department of Philosophy and Classics
University of Ghana, Legon
The person: between individuality and communality

Prof. Chiedozie Okoro & Prof. Uduma Ojuma
Visiting Professor
Department of Philosophy and Classics
University of Ghana, Legon
Igbo Ontology of the Human Person and Environment

Register at https://forms.gle/hd8P3rKxRKhsewhkfZ9